Currency of the statement

The UAC Qualifications Assessment Statement is valid as at the date of issue. The statement is based on the common assessment procedures and guidelines approved by UAC's participating institutions as at the date of issue. These guidelines are set using research undertaken by UAC. This research involves recommendations from Australian Education International through the National Office of Overseas Skills Recognition (AEI-NOOSR), the National Academic Recognition Information Centre for the United Kingdom (UK NARIC) and other relevant sources available to UAC. These assessment procedures and guidelines, research and recommendations are confidential information of UAC or made available to UAC on a confidential basis. UAC and participating institutions reserve the right to change the level of comparison of qualifications as additional information becomes available.

Participating institutions

The Qualifications Assessment Statement is issued to provide prospective UAC applicants with an assessment of their qualifications. This may be used as a guide by admissions officers in determining prospective applicants' eligibility for courses offered at UAC participating institutions:

For a complete list of UAC participating institutions visit <http://www.uac.edu.au/undergraduate/institutions/>

Use of the statement

The Qualifications Assessment Statement does not bind any institution to accept UAC's assessment.

Eligibility for course entry is determined by the institutions themselves.

The statement does not guarantee admission to an institution. There are a number of factors affecting entry into a course. Entry is based on competition as places may be limited and some courses may have additional requirements or prerequisites.

Qualifications may also be superseded by, or looked at in combination with, other assessable qualifications that you may hold.

For accurate advice on eligibility for course entry, please take your Assessment of qualifications statement along with any other qualifications to the Admissions Office at the institution/s to which you are applying.

UAC ranks

The UAC rank disclosed on your Qualifications Assessment Statement is a guide only. It is based on documentation provided for assessment and is subject to changes to the confidential common assessment procedures and guidelines.

Participating institutions use UAC rank/s in different ways when assessing applications for admission. Some institutions may apply different weightings to these UAC rank/s as qualifications may be looked at in combination with other assessable qualifications you may hold, or may use these ranks in conjunction with other selection criteria. Other institutions may not use UAC ranks for qualifications that have been superseded by other qualifications you may have.

Acceptance of qualifications

Participating institutions may not accept all qualifications as a basis of entry into courses. Contact the Admissions Offices at institutions for information about acceptance of qualifications. (For UAC institutions' contact details, visit <http://www.uac.edu.au/undergraduate/institutions/>)

Refund policy

Please apply carefully as UAC will NOT refund charges and fees under any circumstances. You must keep a record of the date and time of your payment as proof of payment. All UAC charges and fees are in Australian dollars (AUD) and include 10% GST.

Copyright
