Some UAC participating institutions may be accepting late direct applications for study in 2010. UAC advises applicants to contact the relevant institutions for further information.

Applications for mid-year admissions will open in April 2010. More information will be available on UAC's website at www.uac.edu.au in early April. Not all institutions participate through UAC for mid-year admissions and institutions that are participating may not offer their full range of courses.
