

Media release – Friday 2 October 2009

For immediate release

Increase in on-time university applications

THE Universities Admissions Centre (UAC) has received an increased number of on-time applications for study at university in 2010. UAC handles undergraduate applications for sixteen institutions, mainly in NSW and the ACT.

University application figures for 2010 admissions at 30 September closing date

Applicant type	Applications for 2010 admissions	Applications for 2009 admissions	Difference 2009-2010 applications
Current NSW Year 12 students	38 611	37 790	+ 821
Current ACT Year 12 students	2 169	2 009	+ 160
Current interstate Year 12 students	5 017	4 912	+ 105
Non-Year 12 applicants	26 308	25 768	+ 540
Total	72 105	70 479	+ 1 626

There is still time to apply – online applications through www.uac.edu.au stay open until 4 February 2010. Most applicants will find out if they are successful in the Main Round of offers, e-released by UAC on 20 January 2010.

For more information about studying at uni in 2010, visit www.uac.edu.au or call (02) 9752 0200.

– END –

For further information (media only) contact:

Lucie Parkin, Communications Officer, Universities Admissions Centre on (02) 9752 0775