ABOUT

Established in 1949 with a unique focus on the scientific, technological and professional disciplines, UNSW Sydney is a leading Australian university committed to making a difference through pioneering research and preparing the next generation of talented global citizens for career success.

UNSW has a proud tradition of sustained innovation, focusing on areas critical to our future – from climate change and renewable energies to lifesaving medical treatments and breakthrough technologies. In the social sciences, UNSW research informs policy and expert commentary in key issues facing society, ranging from human rights and constitutional recognition of Indigenous Australians to public health and population ageing.

UNSW offers an extensive range of undergraduate, postgraduate and research programs. We attract talented students from across Australia and around the world. Our 50,000-plus students come from 128 countries, making us one of Australia’s most cosmopolitan universities. Our emphasis on quality continues to push up entry standards with record demand from the state’s top school leavers.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

The general requirement for admission to postgraduate coursework programs is completion of a recognised Bachelor degree. Admission requirements vary depending on the course you wish to enter. Check the course descriptions on UAC’s website at uac.edu.au/postgraduate/course-search to see whether additional requirements specific to individual courses apply.

Overseas qualifications and English proficiency

If you hold overseas qualifications from countries where English is not the standard language of instruction you must provide evidence of English language proficiency. Refer to UNSW’s English language proficiency requirements on UAC’s website at uac.edu.au/postgraduate/admission/elp.shtml.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS

You may have to submit additional material as part of your application depending on which course/s you apply for. Check the individual course description on UAC’s website at uac.edu.au/postgraduate/course-search to see whether special requirements apply.
UNSW offers a wide range of postgraduate coursework programs at Graduate Certificate, Graduate Diploma and Master’s level. The Juris Doctor, Master of Teaching (Secondary or Primary) and all postgraduate coursework programs in the School of Public Health and Community Medicine are offered via UAC. For details, visit uac.edu.au/postgrad. The majority of postgraduate coursework programs at UNSW are not offered through UAC. Application is directly to UNSW via Apply Online. For details, please visit unsww.edu.au/postgrad.

ENROLMENT
Acceptance of offer
You will receive details of acceptance and enrolment procedures with your UAC letter of offer. A personalised offer page will be emailed to you on how to accept and enrol online. Failure to follow the outlined procedures may result in your offer lapsing.

Advanced standing/Academic credit
If you have already completed some postgraduate study you may be entitled to credit for relevant subjects or for entry to the second year of a course. The University does not determine advanced standing until an offer of admission has been made and accepted. For general advice about credit, contact the school office of the course to which you are applying. For contact details, visit student.unsw.edu.au/program-contacts.

Deferral of offer
Deferral is usually for one year. Successful applicants may defer their offer to commence studies in Semester 1, 2019. Juris Doctor and School of Public Health and Community Medicine applicants also have the option of deferring for one semester to commence studies in Semester 2, 2018.

FEES AND CHARGES
Commonwealth-supported places
Students who enrol in a Commonwealth-supported place (CSP) pay a proportion of the cost of their tuition – a student contribution – and the balance is funded by the Australian Government. All places in Master of Teaching (Secondary or Primary) are Commonwealth-supported. A limited number of CSP are offered in the Juris Doctor program and in the programs offered by School of Public Health and Community Medicine.

Fee-paying places
Students who enrol in a fee-paying (FEE) place pay for the total cost of their tuition. Eligible domestic students can access the Australian Government’s Higher Education Loan Program (FEE-HELP), which provides students with a loan to cover their tuition fees.

Student Services and Amenities Fee
All students are required to pay a Student Services and Amenities Fee (SSAF) for one semester to commence studies in Semester 2, 2018.

INTERNATIONAL FEE-PAYING STUDENTS
International fee-paying applicants apply directly to the University. For further information, visit international.unsw.edu.au or call +61 2 9385 6996.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE
The Australian Government has proposed changes that will affect the way that students will repay the debt accumulated under HELP. For the latest information, including loan and government scholarship assistance details, visit studyassist.gov.au.

UNSW Postgraduate Coursework Equity Scholarships
UNSW offers a small number of Postgraduate Coursework Equity Scholarships to students who receive an offer of a FEE place in a postgraduate coursework program at UNSW. These scholarships allow students to convert their status from fee-paying (FEE) to Commonwealth-supported (CSP). To be eligible for consideration you must:
- be an Australian/New Zealand citizen or Australian permanent resident
- apply for both a CSP and FEE place in the relevant program (you must list the CSP preference higher than the FEE preference)
- not receive an offer to a CSP place in the relevant program.

The Postgraduate Coursework Equity Scholarship is only offered in programs that offer both CSP and FEE places and are subject to availability. You must be experiencing difficulty socio-economic circumstances and/or must meet one or more of the following criteria:
- be an Indigenous Australian
- have a long-term medical condition or disability
- come from a non-English speaking background
- be living in a rural or isolated area of Australia.
