ABOUT
When you graduate with a La Trobe degree, you’ll join more than 190,000 others who have gone on to transform lives, professions and communities. Among them are CEOs of some of our most prominent organisations, parliamentarians, human rights activists, medical researchers and Olympians.

In 2016, we were ranked in the QS Top 50 Under 50 for the first time, and 56 in the 2017 Times Higher Education 200 Under 50 Rankings. We are also in the world’s top 400 universities in all three major ranking agencies: QS World University Rankings 2016–2017, Times Higher Education (THE) World University Rankings 2016–2017 and the Academic Ranking of World Universities (ARWU) 2016.

Many of our courses include work placements with organisations like CSIRO, the Australian Synchrotron, PwC, and our many hospital partners. This means you’ll graduate with work experience and a network of professional contacts. Our new Career Ready program has been developed with industry to help you build the skills and attributes employers want. You’ll also get hands-on experience through on-campus facilities like our TV studio, archaeological dig simulation site and Moot Court, or on field trips to places like Victoria’s alpine wilderness.

To solve global problems you’ll need a global perspective, so we encourage you to take part in our overseas study programs. You could study nursing in Nepal, nanotechnology in Tokyo or Indigenous studies in the Philippines. In 2016, we gave travel grants and scholarships to 950 undergraduate and postgraduate students to study with partners like National University of Singapore, San Diego State University and Stockholm University. Our culturally diverse campuses are home to more than 80 clubs and societies, covering almost every social, sporting, cultural, academic and political interest you can imagine. We also offer programs to develop your leadership skills as well as volunteer opportunities that can count towards your degree.

By studying with us, you’ll be part of a community that’s contributing to new knowledge. Our researchers at the La Trobe Institute for Molecular Science are looking for new ways to fight disease, while at the Centre for AgriBioscience we’re tackling climate change, drought and other threats to Australia’s agriculture. At the La Trobe Rural Health School, we’re improving health and wellbeing in rural and regional communities.

A La Trobe degree prepares you for more than a career. We prepare you to transform your community and profession. Apply now and be the difference.
