In general, UAC will encourage advertisements relating to matters that positively affect the life of a higher education student.

UAC retains the right to control the placement of all advertisements, which are subject to layout constraints and available space.

Participating institutions listed in UAC’s publications can:

- place an advert within their own entry, or
- place an advertisement within the general information sections of the publication.

No advertisements for an institution will be placed in another institution’s entry.

UAC retains the right to approve and control the style and content of all advertisements.

Where information is presented as fact, it should be accurate and verifiable. No factual claim should be made which cannot be substantiated. Advertisers, not UAC, are responsible for information contained in advertisements.

APPLY DIRECT ENTRY

WHAT IS AN APPLY DIRECT ENTRY?

Apply Direct is for institutions who manage their own application and admissions processes.

Part 3 of the UAC Guide is a dedicated section for these entries and includes:

- your logo and image
- general information about your institution
- a list of your courses (a fixed fee per course applies - see 'Costs' on the next page).

Each entry will be allocated a double-page spread for general information, contact details and links to important information.

The information will have the same look as UAC participating institution entries in Part 2 of the Guide.

APPLY DIRECT COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Detailed course information will be published on UAC's website through our easy-to-use online course search. It will include major standard headings such as 'Admission criteria' and 'Application procedures'. UAC will work with you to edit and style your course descriptions.

ELIGIBILITY

To be included in Part 3 of the Guide:

- your institution must be an 'approved higher education provider' eligible to offer FEE-HELP (as defined by the Australian Government) or a university-owned private provider
- courses must be at diploma level or higher, with HECS-HELP or FEE-HELP or VET FEE-HELP available to eligible students.
