

EAS SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS

What documents do I need to provide?	The supporting documents you need to provide for each disadvantage you claim are included on the document cover sheet, which you can download when you submit your application, and are also listed on the UAC website: go to uac.edu.au/eas and navigate to 'Categories of disadvantage and required documents.' Download a document cover sheet for each of your claimed disadvantages. Select the upload button to upload your document cover sheet and any other supporting documentation to your application. If you're unable to upload your supporting documents, photocopies can be submitted to UAC by post or in person once you've submitted your application. If you don't supply these documents, your application may not be assessed. All documents must be legible and easy to read. UAC will not: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - follow up or contact any EAS applicant regarding missing or insufficient documentation - accept emailed or faxed EAS applications or supporting documentation.
What should I do if I've changed my name?	If you have documents under a previous name, you must supply evidence of your change of name, such as a marriage certificate, deed poll registration or other registration with the Registry of Births, Deaths & Marriages. The documentation must show your previous and current names.
What if my documents aren't in English?	You must supply a copy of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - the document in the original language - an English translation of the document. Your documents must be translated by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Multicultural NSW (visit multicultural.nsw.gov.au) or - a translator accredited by the National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters (NAATI). A list of NAATI-accredited translators in Australia and some overseas locations is available at naati.com.au or call (02) 9267 1357.
I don't have all my documents. Can I submit my EAS application now and follow up with my documents at a later date?	We recommend you submit your application and supporting documents at the same time. UAC can only assess EAS applications based on the documentation provided with your EAS application and does not follow up or contact EAS applicants regarding missing or insufficient documentation.
Can I get my documents back?	From August 2018, if you post or deliver your application or supporting documents to UAC they will be scanned and uploaded for assessment. Your original application and associated supporting documents will be returned to you free of charge by regular post, as they are no longer required by us. Documents posted or delivered in a previous admissions period can be returned to you for a fee. To have your documents returned, download and complete the document retrieval form at uac.edu.au/about/contact.