- In 2023, the UAC Guide will be distributed to schools in April when admissions open.
- It is the only comprehensive book of its type in NSW and the ACT and is mandatory reading for anyone applying for courses through UAC.

Steps to Uni for Year 10 Students

- As primary aids for teachers and student advisers, the UAC Guide and Steps to Uni for Year 10 Students form the basis of classroom sessions, assemblies and parent evenings.

Digital footprint

- Digital editions of UAC’s publications are available on the UAC website, providing access to an even wider audience.
- As a trusted source of information, UAC’s website has a high volume of visitors each year, particularly at peak times in the admission cycle.
- UAC’s social media channels and e-newsletters keep our key audience up to date and include relevant links to our website.
Website and course search

Website traffic

Each year the UAC website attracts over 1.2 million unique visitors to the home page, and more than 6.2 million across the whole site.

There are an average of 600,000 page views per month with peaks in December (1.8 million page views), January (1 million page views), August and September (around 800,000 page views in each).

Course search

UAC’s comprehensive online course search allows users to search for courses by keyword, institution, code and pattern of study.

Applicants are able to select and save favourite courses and then refer to them later when submitting an application.

UAC’s Course Compass tool, designed to help students decide which uni courses to apply for, has an integrated course search function, allowing students to see courses under suggested fields of study. Visit uac.edu.au/coursecompass.

Institution landing pages

Each participating institution has a custom landing page with unique UAC url created to provide ease of access to admission information and course listings on the UAC website.

Apply direct institutions are also entitled to a landing page.

Landing pages offer branded images and a promotional blurb.

Quarterly reporting

UAC provides participating and apply direct institutions (upon request) with a quarterly report on the website traffic to their course description pages, allowing institutions to track interest in courses.

Apply direct entry

What is an apply direct entry?
Apply direct is for institutions who manage their own application and admissions processes.

Part 3 of the UAC Guide is a dedicated section for these entries and includes:

- general information about your institution
- a list of your courses.

Each entry will be allocated a double-page spread for general information, contact details and links to important information.

The information will have the same look as UAC participating institution entries in Part 2 of the Guide.

Apply direct course descriptions
Detailed course information will be published on UAC’s website through our easy-to-use online course search. It will include major standard headings such as ‘Admission criteria’ and ‘Application procedures’. UAC will work with you to edit and style your course descriptions (a fixed fee per course applies – see ‘Costs’ on the next page).

To be included in Part 3 of the Guide:
- your institution must be an ‘approved higher education provider’ eligible to offer FEE-HELP (as defined by the Australian Government) or a university-owned private provider
